THE CHINA REVIEW.

1111S Review, which was intended to most the wants of many students of Chinese caused by the discontinumes of ' Notes and Queries on China and Japan, has reached its Eighteenth Volume. The Miriew discusses those topics, which are upporning in the minds of students of the Far East' and about which every intelligent person connocted with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It in How. J. J. KESWICK, cludes many interesting Notes and original. Papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibot, and the Far East generally. Recently a naw departure has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be madeurore generally

. The Raview department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record Literature on China etc., and to give critiques embodying sketches of the Most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to Editor, China Review, care of China

Mail Office. The Notes and Queries are still continued and form an important means of obtaining from and diffusing among students knowledge on obscure noints. The Correspondents' column also affords farther and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various

Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are recoived. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, the Inperial Customs, and Hongkong Services, and also by the Missionary bodies amongst whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is assiduously cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors are Drs. Chalmers, Eitel, Bretschneider, and Hirth, Professor Legge, and Messrs Balfour, Watters, Stent, Phillips, MacIntyre, Groot, Jamieson, Faber, Kopsch, Parker, Playfair, Giles, Piton, and Taylor,—all well-known names, indicative of sound scholarship and thorough mastery of their subject.

The Subscription is fixed at $6.50 per annum, postage included - payable in advance. Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to; Address, 'Manager, Uhina Mail Office.'

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS. All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Icnew.'-Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.) "The China Review * * * has an excellent table of contents.' - Celestial Empire. "The Publication always contains subjects of interest to sojourners in the Far East and the present issue will hold favourable if not advantageous comparison, with preceding numbers.'-Celestial Empire.

This number contains several articles of interest and value.'-North-China Herald. The China Review for September-October fully maintains the high standard of excellence which characterises that publi ration, and altogether forms a interesting and readable number. teorologists will find an interesting valuable contribution by Dr. Fritsche, on "the Amount of Procipitation (Rain and Snow) of Peking," showing the results of observations made at the Imperial Russian Observatory at Poking, from 1841 to 1880. " Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Formosa," by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contains some interesting information, although much of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most generous and appreciative review of "The Divine Classic of Nan-Hus," and the Notes and Queries are as usual very interesting.' -- North China Daily News. 'A substantial and reliable. Reciew which all students of China and the Chinese would do well to patronise. - Uhrysantheman. 'The November-December number of the China Review contains less variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr Herbert A. Giles on "The New Testament in Chinese" treats of a question that roust necessarily be of great importance in the eyes of all missionaries. . . Mr E. H. Parker's "Short Journeys in Szechuen are continued; and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China is given, Mr F. H. Balfour contributes a paper of some length entitled " The Emperor Chang, founder of the Chinese Empire," which will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history. A few short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, one of which "On Chinese Oaths in Western Borned and Java" might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading; complete the number.'-H.K. Daily Press. Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Keview:-The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, some what similar to that which has been filled in India by the Culcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature. antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be locked or from the members posted from the China Mail Office to subof the foreign consular services, the Chinese | scribers, on their addresses being forwarded Customs' corps, and the missionary body, to the Office. among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assidnously cultivated. and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors . . .

Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Boalde notices of new books relating to Chins and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail. we are glad to notice that 'Notes' and 'Queries' are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary real to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predenessor in the field, and that the China Reviers may receive the support necessary to bours ta continuance.

time since to a block in the pathway at Kowloon Point known as the Plantsin Avenue, and our contributor blamed the authorities for allowing a roadway which had been used by the public for so many years to be so blocked as to endanger passers-by on dark nights. Whatever rights landowners may have acquired by surchase of this ground occupied by the public path ought to have been waived until the road had been constructed to supersede this old roadway. So it was argued, and we think with reason, . Now we learn further that not only does the appearance in Bukit Timah neighbourhood. block on the pathway continue, but the entire Praya near the entrance to the pathway is also covered with logs and plauks, so that communication is practically stopped in this direction altogether. The new wharf at Kowloon Point is progressing towards completion, but some check might surely be placed upon the contractor's mede of working. He is now utilising the entire roadway on all sides as a timber-yard and saw-mill. A nuisance of this sort in a district where gas-lumps or any other kind of lamps have not been provided, is more serious than it would be Liverpool, left Singapore on the 10th in a well-lighted portion of the town. The British Residents in Shanghai are making arrangements for the reception the Dako and Duckess of Connaught, but they are even less of a happy family than we are in Hongkong. The British Consul-General, Mr Hughes, as was only natural, The P. & O. extra steamer Veneti: left | was the first to take action in the matter. Not vishing to be alone in the initiatory arrangements, he invited a number of gentlemen, representing the learned professions, body, Volunteers, &c .- a fairly representative invitation, judging from the list we have seen. The meeting, although hastily called-it being desirable submission to their Royal Highnesses at Singapore-was well attended. A committee was elected, with power to add to their number, to make the necessary preliminary arrangements, and a public meeting of British residents has been called for the 10th inst., to whom the committee will submit a practical and business sort of way of go ing about the matter. The public meeting will have a definite programme to consider, which they may amend or amplify as they choose. The course taken by the Consul, however, does not seem to have given universal satisfaction. There are some who think that the reception should be given by the whole foreign community of Shanghai, and that a public meeting should have been called before any steps whatever were taken. It is a small matter, but unimportant questions often raise more bad feeling than momentous ones, and weobservein the columns of our northern contemporaries shricking letters over the familiar names of Englishman, Briton, Old Resident, a British resident, all of whom think that the arrangements for the reception ought to have been conducted in the way they doen best. We hope our fellow-countrymen in Shanghai have, at the meeting that was to have been held to-day, sunk their differences of agreed on united setion, so that the stay of not be the least agreeable of the episodes shoulders the burden will fall,

Mr Wotton-Your Worship, the opening statement which I made was necessarily somewhat brief, owing to the shortness of the time which I had to give to the case. What the Oriental Bank charged the prisoner with was with taking two sums of money, one of $25,600 and the other of perhaps it will enable you to understand propriete of the Cosmopolitan Hotel this month the prisoner was short in his accounts to the extent of $29,000. Now, in $29,000 order to cover that for the time being, he resorted to this means :- On the 5th March there had been an amount collected from the Comptoir National a sum taken aback, however, when he shur the $25,600. That sum of money, as I shall your Worship, was paid' the Oriental Bank and should been accounted for in the ordinary course by entry in the books, but it was not. The prisoner, as I said, was short $29,000, so in order to make up the difference between that sum and the $25,600 which he had not accounted for he drew a cheque himself, unauthorised, upon the Bank for $3,400, the $25,600 and the lowing :- The Magistrate of the Shun Tuck | 83,4 0 making up the exact amount which District in the Canton Province has posted he was short.
